Charities Appeals Supplement

The Charities Appeals Supplement continues to help develop fundraising revenue streams for charities through legacies, corporate support and donation. This section is written by charities detailing their appeals. It is easy to use with a categorised index below and an A–Z index at the end.

If your client is considering leaving a legacy to charity, please encourage them to browse through the appeals when making that important decision. Please mention the Charities Appeals Supplement when contacting a charity.

The team at the Charities Appeals Supplement would like to thank you for your continuing support; especially those who have left legacies to our featured charities over the last year.

INDEPENDENT DIABETES TRUST

Do you have Diabetes?

Do you know someone with Diabetes?

As a small charity with a big mission
WE NEED YOUR HELP...

We offer free support and information to people with diabetes, their families and health care professionals on the issues that are important to them.

Our Helpline offers a friendly, understanding ear when the going gets tough. Your help will enable us to continue to support people with diabetes and provide much needed aid to children in developing countries.

We rely entirely on voluntary donations. So, if you are thinking about making a donation to charity, or updating your Will, please consider a gift to help us continue our work. Please make donations to "Diabetes Trust Research and Care Fund."

If you knew animals were being abused, could you rest in peace?

Sadly, throughout their lives, the last thing many animals experience is peace. Pepe the spider monkey, for example, was chained by his neck and imprisoned in a circus. They snapped off his canine teeth and kept him in isolation.

He was one of the lucky ones because he was rescued by Animal Defenders International (ADI). He can now live in peace with his own kind. ADI is a major international force in animal protection.

Please help us to help other animals like Pepe to live in peace by making a bequest today to Animal Defenders International.

THE BENEVOLENT FUND FOR NURSES IN SCOTLAND

*THE FUND WHICH WAS STARTED IN 1925
IS STILL NEEDED TODAY*

The Fund for Nurses was established to give assistance to members of the profession who have trained or worked in professional posts in Scotland.

Financial grants are given to:

- Individuals of any age who are experiencing financial difficulties due to their inability to continue working.
- Retired members of the profession who receive little or no pension.

Sadly more and more nurses are finding it necessary to seek our help and through your generosity, we are able to offer additional support in the form of single grants to those less fortunate members of our profession.

The Fund is administered by a Committee of Trustees, most of whom are members of the nursing profession.

If you believe in reincarnation there are some animals you wouldn't want to be

Imagine a life of imprisonment in a cramped cage and being the subject of constant experimentation; a lifetime of suffering followed by a painful death. That's the cruel and futile fate suffered by millions of laboratory animals in the name of research.

The National Anti-Vivisection Society (NAVS) is the world's premier and leading group, working for an end to the suffering of animals in laboratories.

Working within the law, we lobby Parliament, produce scientific reports, educational materials and videos; conduct undercover investigations and expose law breaking. We fund non-animal scientific and medical research.

Please help us to help laboratory animals by making a bequest today to the National Anti-Vivisection Society, Vox Studios North, 1 Durham Street, London SE11 5JH

Helping Artists Thrive

Artists Futures Fund (AFF) is an established and well-respected funder of individual artists in need. Operating under a Royal Charter since 1827, and founded by a group of philanthropists, AFF is proud to have served the UK's artists' community for over 200 years.

Today, we support talented individuals to overcome significant socio-economic, physical and mental health barriers that would prevent them from pursuing careers as artists.

Our core mission is to open doors to diverse and exciting futures in the arts.

We believe that in a period of financial constraint, protecting artistic talent is an investment in the UK's creative future. We are actively seeking donations so we can expand our support for talented artists in need.

is the busiest wildlife hospital in the world

Not only do we treat more hedgehogs than any other wildlife hospital, but our caring team saves lives every single day. Our aim is simple: to treat all injured British wild birds and animals, then return them to the wild. Like Rudolph, who arrived badly injured at just five days old. The road accident that killed his mother left him with three badly broken legs. Our specialist care saved this poor little deer from suffering and he is now facing a brighter future. But it is only with your support that we can help casualties like Rudolph, so please remember Tiggywinkles when making your Will.

Our dear late friend Dame Thora Hird was an ardent supporter of our work. She actively encouraged others to help us secure funding for our lifesaving work to continue. Your legacy will ensure helps is always at hand for all British wildlife; in Dame Thora's own words,

"All the little wild creatures and I thank you so very much".

Help Finance An Evolution

Will you leave a lasting legacy of compassion and help scientific advancement? The Lord Dowding Fund finances scientific and medical research without the use of animals. We believe that cruel animal techniques have no place in 21st century science.

We have supported major advances in many fields including neuroscience, cancer research, and safety testing – we developed a humane British Standard Test for the toxicity of dental fillings. Your legacy could help save the lives of animals and advance scientific research.

Help finance an evolution in medical science and leave a lasting legacy, with a bequest today to the:

Supporting adult family members of physically or psychologically injured British Armed Forces personnel and veterans

Leave a legacy of support that never stops, even after you're gone.

A gift in your will to The Ripple Pond is more than a donation. It's a lifeline for those who stand beside the UK's injured heroes. You've spent your life standing up for what matters, just as Claire's husband did when he joined the British Military at the age of 16. He served on tours in Iraq and Afghanistan at the height of the conflicts, witnessing sights many of us can't even begin to imagine. Sights that changed him; flashbacks, night terrors, and a declining mental health took over, the horrors of war that had been distant and far, became a part of the memories that lived in their home. Sights that led to Claire juggling the demands of a young family, her work, and a war she experienced by proxy, an aftermath that continued not for a week or a month, but over the course of their life, year after year.

You see, behind every serving person or veteran is a family that also serve. Children grow up too fast, learning what PTSD is before they understand multiplication. Families and friends become carers, nurses and lifelines, learning about military trauma, PTSD, moral injury, managing sleepless nights, medications, suicidal ideation, and mental health crisis, all the while holding the family together. The world may move on, and the conflict may end but the support that families provide to their loved one is ongoing.

Just as their loved one fought, they too fight, for appointments, for stability, for moments of peace in lives fractured by trauma. The Ripple Pond advocates for the families, ensuring that the people caring for injured loved ones are seen, heard and supported. Claire's story is one of many, each different and yet each the same.

We offer people like Claire a safe place, a community of like-minded individuals who understand what it's like to walk on eggshells, unsure when or where the trauma will next surface, but committed to helping their loved ones recover. We listen and support, we give them resources, events and workshops to equip them in their journey and one to one support in times of intense struggle.

You may never meet the families you help, but they will never forget you. Your gift could be the reason a family finds hope again.

Joshua's story

Artists Futures Fund: Opening doors to exciting futures in the arts

My journey as an artist has been shaped by many influences, but receiving the Artists Futures Fund Fellowship marked a crucial turning point. I'm a Ghanaian British painter, and I use portraiture as a way to challenge simplistic or singular portrayals of Black identity. My core aim is to tell people's individual stories. My work often resonates with others who feel they exist "in between" different cultures or worlds, finding those spaces are equally part of who they are.

Overcoming barriers

I graduated from Cardiff School of Art & Design in 2020. It was through the university that I was selected to receive the post-graduation Fellowship. This was an opportunity offered by the Artists Futures Fund, designed to support emerging visual artists like me during the critical transition from education into a professional career. The Fellowship is delivered between Artists Futures Fund and partner Higher Education Institutions across the UK. The Fellowship aims to help artists develop their practice and professional progression and overcome significant barriers to sustaining a viable career in the arts.

A bridge to professional progression

Being a Fellow from 2020 to 2021 meant I had a bridge to professional progression. The Fellowship generally provides vital support including an unrestricted grant to support living costs, access to studio space and technical facilities, mentorship, career development advice, exhibition and networking opportunities. These elements are key to helping disadvantaged artists build long-term sustainable careers. The Fellowship recognises the challenges artists face, such as financial instability and lack of access to networks and resources.

Exciting opportunities

Since completing the Fellowship, I've been fortunate enough to engage in a range of significant activities and pursuits, which are strong indicators of success for Fellows. My work has gained wider recognition, leading to several exciting opportunities:

- ▶ I was awarded The Signature Art Prize in 2022
- ▶ I was a commissioned artist for 'The World Reimagined'
- ▶ I received the Young Masters, Highly Commended Prize in 2023
- ▶ I received The de Laszlo Foundation Award for the most outstanding portrait by an artist aged 35 and under at the Royal Society of Portrait Painters Annual Exhibition in 2024
- ▶ The Royal Society of British Artists Rome Scholarship in 2025.
- ▶ Most recently, I had my first Museum solo show with The Holburne Museum.

"This last year has been so far beyond my wildest expectations"

These opportunities and achievements, following my time as a Fellow, demonstrate the impact achieved not only for me as an individual but also through the visibility and engagement my work brings.

The support from the Artists Futures Fund was instrumental in helping me navigate the early stages of my professional life and break through the barriers many emerging artists face. It has truly helped lay the foundations for a sustainable career, allowing me to continue sharing stories through my art and enriching the cultural landscape.

Your support matters

Artists Futures Fund provides a reliable and effective framework through which funds can be channelled to help artists in need of support. Operating under a Royal Charter since 1827, and originally founded by a collective of philanthropists, AFF is proud to have served the UK's artists' community for over 200 years.

In the UK today, only 8% of artists come from working-class or low-income backgrounds.

Our vision is to enrich and diversify the UK's cultural landscape. We do this by providing financial support, mentoring and networking opportunities for talented emerging artists who face wide-ranging challenges so that they can pursue their own sustainable artistic futures. We believe that in a period of financial constraint, protecting artistic talent is an investment in the future. Support for emerging artists is essential for the continued vitality of cultural life in the UK.

If you are thinking of leaving a gift in your will, or donating today, you will be directly helping Artists Futures Fund to support a greater number of talented artists. Every gift we receive makes a difference. Please visit www.artistsfuturesfund.org to learn more about Artists Futures Fund and how you can support our work. Animal Defenders International (ADI) works worldwide to protect animals and the environment. Our investigations of wildlife trafficking, animals in circuses, animal experimentation and more drive awareness, education, legislation, and prosecutions.

ADI offers practical solutions, like advanced techniques to replace animals in research, and support for governments enforcing animal protection laws, such as bans on animal circuses – in Bolivia, Colombia, Peru and Guatemala, ADI tracked down and rescued every circus animal including bears, monkeys, lions, and tigers.

Many of these lions and tigers now enjoy natural habitats at the ADI Wildlife Sanctuary, South Africa and we have supported sanctuaries in Latin America, USA and Europe.

Medical research and welfare

The Trust was set up in 1994 by people with diabetes for people with diabetes. We offer support and understanding to those with diabetes and their families. We provide a free telephone listening service and information leaflets to enable people with diabetes to have an informed choice of treatment and to help with the day to day difficulties of living with diabetes.

Around three quarters of a million people in the UK have insulin requiring diabetes and the incidence of diabetes in children is increasing. It is essential that we support research to help this very vulnerable group faced with a lifetime of diabetes. Your support will enable us to further develop our programme to help children and provide information for teachers about the needs of children with diabetes.

Diabetes can cause blindness, kidney failure, nerve damage and heart attack that severely affect the lives of all those living with diabetes. A cure for diabetes is still illusive so the Trust supports research that will help to improve the daily lives of people living with diabetes now. The studies we support involve people with diabetes under normal treatment conditions to ensure that it reflects 'real life' conditions. We also collate information from the experiences of people with diabetes to help to inform others.

We collect unused, in-date insulin to send to clinics in developing countries where people die for lack of affordable insulin. Please help us to continue our work, making cheques payable to 'Diabetes Trust Research and Care Fund'.

Animals and birds

Redwings believes that every horse, pony, donkey and mule has the right to a happy and healthy life, free of fear and neglect.

The 100% publicly funded charity rescues neglected and abandoned horses from all over the country, giving them a safe place to live for the rest of their days, and is currently home to over 1,500 – making Redwings the UK's largest horse sanctuary.

As well as providing a place of sanctuary to rescued horses, Redwings has five visitor centres in England and Scotland that enable supporters to see how their kind donations really can make a difference to horses and donkeys in need.

Redwings' Aylsham Visitor Centre in North Norfolk was funded by the gifts people had left in their Wills and has been vital in enabling the charity to continue to provide homes for the increasing number of abandoned horses in desperate need of love and care.

Gifts in Wills make up the largest proportion of Redwings' income and the charity simply wouldn't be able to exist without them. Remembering Redwings Horse Sanctuary in your Will is a wonderful way to support the charity's work and leave a lasting legacy that will help them to help horses and donkeys for generations to come. Whether your gift is large or small, every donation makes a real difference to the future of Redwings' residents.

Animals and birds / Conservation / Education

Here at Tiggywinkles, we are dedicated to rescuing and rehabilitating British wildlife. We are open 24hrs a day, 7 days a week to help any wild animal in need and our service is free of charge. We rely on donations to provide our life-saving care for patients like Robbie the robin, who arrived in our care under unusual circumstances!

As the World's leading teaching wildlife hospital, we have lots of students on site and one of our Level Two Animal Care students found Robbie on the pathway of our grounds. She immediately realised he needed help as he was lying flat and couldn't fly. She rushed him into triage and our duty nurse quickly assessed his condition.

Sadly, Robbie was suffering from temporary ataxia – the loss of coordination and control of movement – and the team suspected he had sustained head trauma. To treat his symptoms, our vet put Robbie on a short course of antibiotics and pain relief. After one week of treatment, Robbie was once again flying around his cage and was ready for release.

We are so happy that we could help this beautiful bird back to the wild and although we never want any wild animal to find itself in trouble, it is nice to think that they know where to come, should they ever need help! Our doors are always open to any wild animal in need, even walk-ins!

To help us care for patients like Robbie, please consider donating. We receive no government or lottery funding, so we need your help – every penny helps us help them!
